PATIENT INFORMATION AND CONSENT FORM

Tara Northey is a qualified Osteopath and experienced massage therapist with a Master's degree from Leeds Metropolitan University. She is registered with the General Osteopathic Council and insured through the Institute of Osteopathy to treat with Massage therapy, Osteopathy and Dry needling.

Please be aware of the following facts about Massage therapy;

- Treatment is performed through hand to body contact; and therefore, your practitioner will be required to touch the affected area of the body.
- It will be necessary to undress down to your underwear. This will be to allow the practitioner to do the best job possible at massaging all affected areas.
- Sometimes, discomfort may be felt; with some kinds of massage, pain will be felt as part of being an effective treatment.
- Whilst we use our utmost professional skill to help you with your condition, we cannot guarantee the outcome as every patient reacts differently to treatment.

If you feel unhappy or uncomfortable with any of the statements above, please do not sign this consent form and inform your practitioner before treatment.

Cancellation and Missed Appointment Policy

Please attend all your booked appointments.

- If you cannot attend or you are unwell, please call and inform the osteopath as soon as possible (48hours notice is advised)

Tara Northey Osteopathy reserves the right to charge (50% of the appointment cost) for appointments where patients have not attended and failed to inform the osteopath in advance of 24hours.

Data Protection

Under the Data Protection Act (1988), Tara Northey Osteopathy is required to retain information gathered from your osteopathic consultations for 7 years following your last treatment. After this period, all information will be appropriately disposed of.

I can confirm I have read, understood and agreed with all of the information above.

I understand I am responsible for all appointment fee payments and non-attendance charges that may occur.
